Saint Bartholomew

Bartholomew, known in some Gospels as Nathanael, a name that means “God has given” was introduced to Jesus by the apostle Philip with the description that Jesus was the promised one of God. Upon learning where Jesus was born, Bartholomew asked, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” But, the moment Jesus saw Bartholomew, Jesus praised him, saying that he could see there was no dishonesty in his heart. Bartholomew immediately believed in Jesus becoming an Apostle and witness to many of Jesus’ beautiful miracles.

Two lessons of note – First, Nathanael’s comment about Nazareth highlights God’s freedom and ability to be found in the very places where we least expect Him. We must be ready and willing at all times; open always for His message. Second, Bartholomew believed and followed Jesus. Jesus knew this revelation was from God the Father. We are confident He knows each of us intimately, knows our heart. But to have a relationship with Jesus, we must believe and act on those beliefs – Faith!

Bartholomew traveled to foreign lands to share the Good News, founding Christian communities in India, Armenia and Turkey. He was martyred by a death of flaying, which is thought to be the reason he is the patron saint of leatherworks, tanning, butchers – all associated with skin.

Closing Prayer:

Lord, open my mind and heart to the treasure of Your Truth as revealed in the Doctrine of the Real Presence. Grant that my eyes may see, through faith’s vision, the wonders of Your Love in the Most Holy Eucharist. As I meditate on the mystery of Your Hidden Presence, I entreat You to increase my faith, enkindle my hope, and deepen my love for You, my Eucharistic King. Amen

Eucharist Heart of Jesus, Have mercy on us
Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, pray for us
St. Bartholomew, pray for us

Remembering the Deceased

As a traditional Catholics, Let us send our love and wishes to all those loved ones who are no more on Earth by offering masses on All Souls’ Day hoping for their peace and happiness in the presence of the Lord. With time the pain of absence of our loved ones might faint but their memories will always stay fresh in our hearts. So, Let us join our hands and bow our heads and offer masses for the departed souls on the occasion of All Souls Day.”
As we know All Souls’ Day is coming on November 2, You’re requested to remember and pray for your beloved ones, those forgotten souls, for those To whom no one to pray for and for souls in purgatory. You could take the envelopes, write the names of your beloved ones who are deceased and make your donations to Fr.

Prabhu Arockiasamy. He will be praying for them on all souls day & throughout the month of November by placing those envelopes on the altar of the Lord. My Beloved deceased Grandparents, godparents, Parents, my sweet husband, wife, children and my relatives, I Will make a very Happy All Souls Day to you and Make it a special day by remembering and offering mass for you on Souls day and throughout the month of November.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In today’s Gospel, an unnamed man approaches Jesus and inquires about what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus replies that one must follow the commandments of the Law of Moses. The man acknowledges that he has observed all of these since his childhood. Jesus then says that only one thing is lacking: he must give his possessions to the poor and follow Jesus. The man leaves in sadness, and Mark tells us that this is because he had many possessions.

The belief in resurrection and eternal life was a relatively recent development in Jewish thought at Jesus’ time, and it wasn’t shared by everyone. The Pharisees taught that there would be a resurrection from the dead; the Sadducees did not share this belief. Jesus taught that there would be a final judgment for everyone and eternal life (the Kingdom of God) for believers.

Jesus makes two requirements of the wealthy man who approaches him. First, he must give up his possessions. Throughout history, some Christians have taken this literally. Their example witnesses to us a radical commitment to the Gospel of Jesus. Some have read this as a particular requirement directed to this specific individual.

Still others have sought to explain the meaning intended by the word possessions as those things that prevent one from following Jesus. Christians have generally understood that at the least, following Jesus requires that believers hold material possessions loosely and remain vigilant against seeking security in accumulating possessions. The second requirement Jesus makes of this man is the invitation that Jesus extends to all would-be disciples: “follow me.” Jesus very much wants this man to be his disciple.

We believe that the Christian faith is one in which each believer is in a personal relationship with Jesus. Just as this Gospel tells us that Jesus loves the man and is sad when he departs, so too, Jesus loves us and is saddened when we are unable to follow him.

We see in this Gospel reading another example of Mark’s pattern, which shows Jesus offering further elaboration about his message and meaning to his disciples. To his disciples, Jesus laments the challenges faced by those who are rich in following him and entering the Kingdom of God. In reply to the disciples’ astonishment at the strictness of the standard that Jesus speaks about today, Jesus reminds his disciples that nothing is impossible with God. Salvation is determined by our ability to rely completely upon God.
