Saint Bartholomew

Bartholomew, known in some Gospels as Nathanael, a name that means “God has given” was introduced to Jesus by the apostle Philip with the description that Jesus was the promised one of God. Upon learning where Jesus was born, Bartholomew asked, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” But, the moment Jesus saw Bartholomew, Jesus praised him, saying that he could see there was no dishonesty in his heart. Bartholomew immediately believed in Jesus becoming an Apostle and witness to many of Jesus’ beautiful miracles.

Two lessons of note – First, Nathanael’s comment about Nazareth highlights God’s freedom and ability to be found in the very places where we least expect Him. We must be ready and willing at all times; open always for His message. Second, Bartholomew believed and followed Jesus. Jesus knew this revelation was from God the Father. We are confident He knows each of us intimately, knows our heart. But to have a relationship with Jesus, we must believe and act on those beliefs – Faith!

Bartholomew traveled to foreign lands to share the Good News, founding Christian communities in India, Armenia and Turkey. He was martyred by a death of flaying, which is thought to be the reason he is the patron saint of leatherworks, tanning, butchers – all associated with skin.

Closing Prayer:

Lord, open my mind and heart to the treasure of Your Truth as revealed in the Doctrine of the Real Presence. Grant that my eyes may see, through faith’s vision, the wonders of Your Love in the Most Holy Eucharist. As I meditate on the mystery of Your Hidden Presence, I entreat You to increase my faith, enkindle my hope, and depen my love for You, my Eucharistic King. Amen

Eucharist Heart of Jesus, Have mery on us
Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, pray for us
St. Bartholomew, pray for us

Remembering the Deceased

As a traditional Catholics, Let us send our love and wishes to all those loved ones who are no more on Earth by offering masses on All Souls’ Day hoping for their peace and happiness in the presence of the Lord. With time the pain of absence of our loved ones might faint but their memories will always stay fresh in our hearts. So, Let us join our hands and bow our heads and offer masses for the departed souls on the occasion of All Souls Day.”
As we know All Souls’ Day is coming on November 2, You’re requested to remember and pray for your beloved ones, those forgotten souls, for those To whom no one to pray for and for souls in purgatory. You could take the envelopes, write the names of your beloved ones who are deceased and make your donations. Fr. Prabhu A will be praying for them on all souls day & throughout the month of November by placing their names on the altar of the Lord.

My Beloved deceased Grandparents, godparents, Parents, my sweet husband, wife, children and my relatives, I will offer mass on all souls day and pray for you and pray for me.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In this Sunday’s Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark’s Gospel that reports Jesus’ journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark’s Gospel, Jesus’ words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today’s Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus’ glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard several weeks ago (on the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark 9:33-37), Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today’s Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus’ example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?
