Developing the Strength of a Prophet

The consoling words from the prophet Jeremiah give comfort to all of us. God told him that he, like each of us, was known even in his mother's womb. It was this knowledge of being known and loved that gave Jeremiah the strength to stand before his people and prophesy some very strong and harsh words. He was set as a strong pillar, a wall of brass, a fortified city. He was rooted in love, because he needed to be so as not to be crushed by the anger and resentment stirred up by his prophetic words.

Jesus faces the same ire when visiting his hometown. At first the Nazarenes praise him, but soon, as if they had some entitlement, they presumptuously demand that he perform miracles to satisfy their vanity—not to change their hearts. When Jesus challenges them, their response is to want to throw him off a cliff!

As Christians, we all have a prophetic mission. We're called to preach the truths of the gospel, and at times this isn't popular. In the public square, the Church and Christians are often praised for their charitable work but asked to silence their religious voice when morality is discussed. We need the strength and conviction of prophets as well as the love that drives them.

For Reflection

Do I have the serenity and moral courage to share the gospel truth in love?

Do I always show my faith in charitable thoughts and actions, and then in words when appropriate?

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you.

Dear Padre,

My son and his wife attend a Christian church because they like the minister and the upbeat service. My son was raised Catholic and still claims he is Catholic, even though he doesn't go to a Catholic church. I feel frustrated by the whole affair!

Your frustration is certainly shared by many parents and grandparents today. They raised their children Catholic, even sent them to Catholic schools, but their adult children are less disciplined about their faith practices. Recent surveys on religion showed that 80 percent of Americans say they believe in God, and 75 percent consider spirituality important in their lives. But this doesn't mean they commit to religious practices. About 60 percent of Catholics questioned attend religious services only once or twice a month, or never. Many are interested in exploring different teachings and attending different churches. The loyalty to the Church and its disciplines that was evident in our own lives, or in our parents' and grandparents' lives, is often lacking in today's under-fifty-five crowd.

What can one do about this? The traditional method is to pray for your children while continuing to set an example through your own loyalty to the Catholic Church—including attendance at Sunday Mass and observance of other Church disciplines. It would be good to invite your son and his wife to attend church with you when they are visiting. As we age, we often become more religious and traditional. We may become more interested in our family's history, photos, and traditions. The religion of our childhood may begin to appear very attractive again. Be patient and continue to pray that your children will return to the Church of their roots.

A Word from Pope Francis

No matter how many Sunday Masses, if your heart does not reach out to others, if you do not know what is happening to your people, your faith is weak, unhealthy, or dead. It is a faith without Christ; faith without solidarity is faith without Christ, it is faith without God, faith without brothers and sisters.

This Week's Saints

This coming week there are multiple Feast Days and Memorials for Saints that may not be as well known as others. These Saints, however, are waiting for us to ask for their intercession on our behalf. Below are the Saints for Feb. 4 - 8. Take a moment and ask a Saint to pray for your petition just as you would ask one of your friends to pray.

St. Agatha
Saint Agatha,
you suffered sexual assault and indignity because of your faith.
Help heal all those who are survivors of sexual assault and protect those women who are in danger. Amen.

"Jesus Christ, Lord of all,
You see my heart, You know my desires.
Possess all that I am. I am Your sheep:
make me worthy to overcome the devil."

- St. Agatha

Feast Day

Be at peace with your own soul, then heaven and earth will be at peace with you.

~ St. Jerome

St Jerome Emiliani February 8

St. Paul Miki was the son of a Japanese military leader. He became a Jesuit in 1859 and was known for his eloquent preaching. He and twenty five other Catholics were crucified on February 5th during the persecution of Christians in the name of the Japanese emperor.

They were all Canonized as the Martyrs of Japan in 1862 and their feast day is February 6th.

St. Josephine Bakhita :: February 8

"Loving God, rewarder of the humble, you blessed St. Josephine Bakhita with charity and patience.
May her prayers help us,
and her example inspire us
to carry our cross and to love you always.
Pour upon us the spirit of wisdom and love with which you filled St. Josephine Bakhita.
By serving you as she did, may we please you by our faith and our actions.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen."
