ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Eucharistic Revival which has been going on for about a year will reach its pinnacle with the Blessed Sacrament being processed across the county on 4 different routes that all culminate in Indianapolis (where the Eucharist Congress is scheduled to be held in July). Our Archdiocese of Mobile is on the Juan Diego Route.

At 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 15, Archbishop Rodi will celebrate Mass in the Cathedral-Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. At this Mass he will consecrate the host which will be used for our portion of the Eucharistic Procession. The procession will begin as we recess from Mass. It will end at St. Mary Parish Church with a talk about the connection between being people of the Eucharist and being people of service.

After this talk, most pilgrims will be dismissed. (With the exception of those who have volunteered to help stuff bags for distribution to seafarers; materials are provided). There will be a shuttle available to return pilgrims to their cars that were left at the Cathedral

GOSPEL REFLECTION

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to the central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity, one God in three Persons. The Gospel for this Solemnity is taken from the Gospel of Matthew. In its conclusion, Matthew's Gospel quickly moves from the disciples' discovery of Jesus' empty tomb and Jesus' appearance to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to the commission that Jesus gives to his disciples in today's Gospel.

The final commission, as this part of Matthew's Gospel is sometimes called, is given on the mountaintop. Throughout Scripture, many of the most important events happen on a mountaintop, and Matthew used this motif often. Peter, James, and John saw Jesus transfigured on the mountaintop, and Jesus taught the crowds from the mountaintop in the Sermon on the Mount. In today's Gospel, the eleven disciples go the mountaintop in Galilee, as Jesus had instructed them through Mary Magdalene and the other Mary. They see Jesus, and they worship and doubt at the same time. Jesus approaches them and commissions them to baptize and teach. It is a task for which Jesus had previously prepared his disciples; recall that Jesus had already sent the twelve apostles to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal. Yet earlier, the Twelve were sent only to the House of Israel; in this final commission, the eleven are told to go to all nations. The mission of Jesus is now to be taken to all people, and the task is to baptize and to teach.

Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in the name of the Trinity; this is one of the clearest attestations for Baptism in the name of the Holy Trinity found in Scripture. Other New Testament references to Baptism describe it as being celebrated in the name of Jesus. As we read this Gospel on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded that this central mystery of faith is meant to be lived. As baptized Christians, we share in the life of the blessed Trinity and seek to invite others to share in God's love.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit
Amen.
