PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

Father in heaven, all the elements of nature obey your command. You are the Master of land and sea.

During the hurricane season, we turn to you, O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid. Calm the wind and the waves as you did on the sea of Galilee.
We ask you to protect us from all natural disasters.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Fr. Prabhu A will bring communion to homebound and sick this Thursday (6th July) from 9am -1:30pm.

The Church office is closed for the 4th of July

Prayer of Generosity

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to seek reward, except that of knowing that I do your will. Amen.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus, Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit- Amen
