St John - Apostle and Evangelist

- Feast Day: December 27th

- Called to be an apostle in the first year of Jesus' ministry

- Known as "Jesus' beloved apostle"

- Believed to be the longest surviving apostle and only one not to die a martyr's death

- The one apostle who did not forsake our Savior in hour of His Passion

- Wrote five books of the Bible: Gospel of John, First John, Second John, Third John, and Revelation

St John's writing style is mystical, reflective, contemplative, and includes rich symbolism. His gospel focuses us on the intimacy of our being called to love, and, to be loved by God.

St John is particularly important to us this year of Eucharistic Revival since he centered so much of the writing of his Gospel on the Eucharist and The Word Made Flesh. If we want to understand the necessity that we receive and believe in the Eucharist, we only need to read John, Chapter 6 (The Bread of Life Discourse). We hear it in Jesus' own words so we know it is so. John's gospel is the only of the four that includes this very meaningful account of Jesus' words and in such an explicit manner.

St. John also stresses the Holy Spirit - telling us that the Holy Spirit is promised to us by Jesus.

So in this year of Eucharistic Revival, let us ask St. John to bless us and thank him for recounting so clearly why we need the Blessed Eucharist in our daily lives.

Closing Prayer

Lord, open my mind and heart to the treasure of Your Truth as revealed in the Doctrine of the Real Presence. Grant that my eyes may see, through faith's vision, the wonders of Your Love in The Most Holy Eucharist. As I meditate on the mystery of Your Hidden Presence, I entreat You to increase my faith, enkindle my hope, and deepen my love for You, my Eucharistic King. Amen

Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, Have mercy on us
Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, pray for us
St. John, pray for us

GOSPEL REFLECTION

On this Sunday, we continue to read from the "Bread of Life discourse" found in the sixth chapter of John's Gospel. Recall that we have been reading from this chapter for the past two weeks and will continue to read from it for another two. Last week, the crowd asked for a sign that would show that Jesus came from God. Jesus replied by saying that he is the sign and the bread of life sent by God. At this point, our Lectionary omits six verses in which Jesus predicts the unbelief of the crowd and further develops his connection with God the Father. In these verses, Jesus says that he was sent by God to do the Father's will. Jesus promises that those who look upon the Son with faith will find eternal life. Some of these themes are repeated in today's Gospel reading.

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent.

This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit
Amen

Rev. Prabhu Arockiasamy
