GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel. In this Gospel, we find evidence of Jesus' fame in the sizable crowd that accompanies him as he journeys to Jerusalem. Jesus' reputation as a healer has preceded him. When the blind man, Bartimaeus, hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, he calls out to him, asking for his pity. When Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus, the crowd around him tries to silence him. Yet Bartimaeus persists, calling out more loudly and with greater urgency. He will not be silenced or deterred from getting Jesus' attention. We notice how quickly the crowd's reaction changes when Jesus calls for Bartimaeus. Those who sought to quiet him now encourage him. When Jesus restores Bartimaeus's sight, no elaborate action is required. (In other healing stories in Mark's Gospel, actions accompany Jesus' words). In this instance, Jesus simply says that Bartimaeus's faith has saved him. Throughout Mark's Gospel, the success of Jesus' healing power has often been correlated with the faith of the person requesting Jesus' help. For example, it is because of her faith that the woman with the hemorrhage is healed. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth. Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. In Mark's Gospel, Bartimaeus is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. Bartimaeus hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, but he calls out to Jesus using words of faith—"Son of David." Many in Jesus' time believed that the anticipated Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus's words prepare us for the final episodes of Mark's Gospel, which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. As Mark has shown us in our readings over the past few Sundays, however, Jesus will be the Messiah in a way that will be difficult for many to accept. Jesus will show himself to be the Messiah through his suffering and death.

Saint Bartholomew

Bartholomew, known in some Gospels as Nathanael, a name that means "God has given" was introduced to Jesus by the apostle Philip with the description that Jesus was the promised one of God. Upon learning where Jesus was born, Bartholomew asked, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" But, the moment Jesus saw Bartholomew, Jesus praised him, saying that he could see there was no dishonesty in his heart. Bartholomew immediately believed in Jesus becoming an Apostle and witness to many of Jesus' beautiful miracles.

Two lessons of note – First, Nathanael's comment about Nazareth highlights God's freedom and ability to be found in the very places where we least expect Him. We must be ready and willing at all times; open always for His message. Second, Bartholomew believed and followed Jesus. Jesus knew this revelation was from God the Father. We are confident He knows each of us intimately, knows our heart. But to have a relationship with Jesus, we must believe and act on those beliefs – Faith!

Bartholomew traveled to foreign lands to share the Good News, founding Christian communities in India, Armenia and Turkey. He was martyred by a death of flaying, which is thought to be the reason he is the patron saint of leatherworks, tanning, butchers – all associated with skin.

Closing Prayer:

Lord, open my mind and heart to the treasure of Your Truth as revealed in the Doctrine of the Real Presence. Grant that my eyes may see, through faith's vision, the wonders of Your Love in the Most Holy Eucharist. As I meditate on the mystery of Your Hidden Presence, I entreat You to increase my faith, enkindle my hope, and deepen my love for You, my Eucharistic King. Amen

Eucharist Heart of Jesus, Have mercy on us
Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, pray for us
St. Bartholomew, pray for us

Remembering all souls

All Souls Day is a day to remember those who have died and to share in the hope of resurrection.

"Very truly I tell you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life. Jn 5:24

But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life Rev. 21:27

St James the Apostle gives a method of avoiding or lessening our stay in Purgatory.

He says: "He who saves a soul saves his own and satisfies for a multitude of sins." (James 1:20)

St. John Chrysostom (347-407) Doctor of the Church says " let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons purified by their father's sacrifice (1:5). Why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and offer our prayers for them.
