Remembering the Deceased
November Month

We as Catholics profess and believe in resurrection of the dead, the Christian traditions through priests hold to pray for the repose of the souls in the month of November. We have the envelopes on the pews and you can write the names of the deceased in your family and offer whatever you can to the priest. These names written on the envelope will be placed on the altar of the Lord and the souls would be remembered and prayed in the masses celebrated in the month of November. St. Monica said, On her death bed to her Son St. Augustine; "My son, bury me wherever you want but never forget to offer masses on the Altar of the Lord. For the Masses relinquishes and refreshes the souls of the faithful departed".

Gospel Reflection

Dear Brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, As we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, our Lectionary skips a chapter that helps set the context for today's reading. If we were to read the sections skipped (chapter 11 and part of chapter 12), we would hear about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, his cleansing of the Temple, and the questioning of Jesus' authority by the chief priests, scribes, and elders. The context, therefore, for this Gospel is Jesus' growing exposure before the Jewish authorities. Jesus is being questioned and tested by the Jewish authorities, yet the scribe who addresses Jesus in today's Gospel seems to be an admirer; he is not testing Jesus.

The question posed in today's Gospel requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of these commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus was not the only Jewish religious teacher to connect these two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. Both of these commandments were central elements of the religious tradition that Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed, these commandments continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor. Many believe, however, that this connection was heard in a new and fresh way when spoken by Jesus.

The scribe who questions Jesus in today's Gospel engages in a positive dialogue with Jesus. He agrees with Jesus' teaching that the commandments to love God and love neighbor stand above the commandment to offer worship and sacrifice in the Temple. With this dialogue, Jesus appears to close the debate with the Jewish authorities. Mark reports that no one dared to question Jesus further.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit-
Amen.

Rev. Prabhu Arockiasamy
